Ambassador Khan attended Kashmir Seminar organized by Pakistan Association Japan

Ambassador Asad Majeed Khan attended a seminar organized by Pakistan

Association Japan to observe Kashmir black day on October 28, 2017. Addressing the seminar Ambassador Khan highlighted India's illegal occupation of Jammu and Kashmir and expressed solidarity with the people of Kashmir who are being subjected to worst kind of brutalities by Indian occupied forces. Ambassador Khan reaffirmed Pakistan's commitment to the just cause of Kashmiri people and reiterated the resolve to extend political, legal and moral support to them at all levels and forums.

Ambassador Khan added that during last 9 months the Indian forces have intensified their atrocities against Kashmiri people by killing 460 innocent people and wounding 7000 including 260 pellet gun injuries. However, these inhuman tactics had failed to deter the brave people of Kashmir for seeking their right of self-determination.

The Ambassador referred to the longstanding resolutions of the UN on Kashmir and termed its non-implementation as a big question mark on its credibility. He also urged upon Japan and International Community to take stock of the gross human rights violation in Indian Occupied Kashmir and play its due role in resolving one of the oldest unfinished agenda of the UN by providing all out support to the Kashmiri people who are waging an indigenous and legitimate struggle for their right of self-determination.

The Ambassador appreciated the efforts and initiatives of Pakistani Community in highlighting the issue of Kashmir by organizing events that brought to limelight the true picture of a just and peaceful cause.
